Dear Mr. Harris,

I got the photo and your email addresses from Zelie of Ultimate Travel. So it's been 16 years since we met and what a magic I found myself of the past again.

I'm still with Vidotour but no longer work as a tour guide. I did this job which I love until 1998 when I was appointed as office manager of Vidotour in Central Vietnam. I moved to the head office in Saigon last year to work in marketing, and in charge of Hue office at the same time.

How have you been? Do you have any plan to come back to Vietnam again?

I hope to hear from you.
Kind regards,
Ky

Dear Mr. Harris,

I got to know from my sales team that you will be travelling with us in February. It would be very interesting to see you back again.

May I have the pleasure of inviting you and your partner Ms. Celia Wormleighton to dinner on 10 or 11 February?

I didn't see your requesting me to be your guide again this time

Thank you and I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,
Ky

It was wonderful to hear from you again. I told Janie a few minutes ago and she was really thrilled. (You probably didn't recognise her name, but Celia is Janie's formal name - she only uses Celia on official documents).

It is very kind indeed of you to invite us to dinner, an offer we most gratefully accept. We should be less travel-weary by the second night, so I suggest we meet on the evening of 11 February, if that also suits you.

When I learned, the other day, that Ultimate Travel use Vidotour, I sent those snaps through on the off chance that you might still be there. Had you still be working as a tour guide, we most certainly would have requested you. You are one of the very best guides we have ever had. The people who do act as our guides in Vietnam have got a tough act to follow - but no pressure!

Latest news - my third book has just come out:

<http://www.amazon.co.uk/exec/obidos/ASIN/1857885716/zyenlimite>

The translation/territory rights are placed in China, Taiwan and South Korea but not yet Vietnam as far as I know!

On old news, I'll send you a snapfish link in a moment so you can see all our pictures from Vietnam. The service is completely free - you just have to register which takes a few seconds. They will try to sell you the pictures but of course if you want any of the images simply tell me which ones you want and I'll e-mail them now or bring them with me in February.

Really looking forward to seeing you and we can catch up on all this and more when we meet.

With very best wishes to you from both of us

Ian (aka Ged) and Janie (aka Daisy, not really aka Celia)

Dear Ian and Janie,

11Feb is fine with me and I hope not to have any travels then.

I have seen the photos and they reminded me of many things of the past. I told Zelig of the Ultimate Travel that having your contact after such long time has been the most beautiful thing in my life.

I joined Vidotour 10March 1996 and not long after that we met. Vietnam has changed a lot ever since.

It would be great if you could bring the pictures (all of them if possible) and a copy of your new book if it's fine with you. I love reading and I'm coaching my son on this.

Thank you very much and I look forward to seeing you both then.

Kind regards,

Ky

Hi Ky

We're both really looking forward to seeing you in February and so pleased to be in touch with you again.

Janie wants to spend time over Christmas looking at those photos again and remembering our holiday with you in 1996.

Very happy to bring the photos (on a CD will be fine I assume) and the book.

Very best wishes from us both

Ian

Just a quick note to thank you so very much for your amazing hospitality in Saigon yesterday.

Daisy and I both really enjoyed meeting your lovely family and of course it was wonderful to see you again after all these years.

On top of that, a splendid meal in super surroundings as well.

Next time we see you, we hope to be entertaining you in London.

With very best wishes and lots of love to you and all the family from both of us.

Ian & Janie, Ged and Daisy!!

Sent while on the move using my irritating yet useful mobile device.

to Ged, me

Dear Ian and Janie/Ged and Daisy,
It was wonderful seeing you last night. To me it was like finding myself of the past again. The boys kept asking me about my previous job. Ken was doing his essay this morning and part of it was about our story. Thank you so much for spending your precious time with us. I hope you enjoy the rest of your time in Vietnam. Let's keep in touch. Look forward to seeing you in London very soon. Kind regards, Ky
